DREADFUL DISCLOSURES.

OVER FOUR THOUSAND CHILDREN
STARVING TO DEATH.

A Long List of Heartrending Cases Brought to Light in Vienna—Infamous Action of the Police in County Galway.
A Mob Takes Westminster Abbey.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—Inquiry recently instituted into the condition of the Vienna poor attending the elementary schools resulted in appalling disclosures. Upward of four thousand children were suffering the pangs of hunger, some of them being on the verge of starvation. A long list of heartrending cases came to light, and there was no doubt that not a few of the unfortunate little ones had died of inattention. Their emaciated appearances amply testified to the veracity of the statement I persuasively extracted from them, which revealed a condition of hopeless destitution unprecedented in the pauper records of this capital.

This intelligence heralded abroad through the local press at once made the starving school children the idols of the hour. The children, when cross examined by a relief committee, corroborated the evidence already taken. It transpired that their principal food consisted of dry bread and occasionally a little weak soup or coffee. It is quite true that some of them affirmed that they took habitually a glass of spirits to keep out the cold. One boy positively stated that his father was a good man and that when he couldn't give him anything to eat he let him drink as much gin as he liked and this was why he often went to school drunk.

The parents of these starving children are for the most part day laborers, though some undoubtedly belong to a less respectable class. As soon as the work of relieving the children was taken in hand subscriptions were opened at the editorial offices of the metropolitan press. Seldom has an appeal to public charity been more readily and generously responded to. The poorer classes have largely contributed. The popular newspapers are full of advertisements from people who can't spare much money, but who offer to give one or two children their daily food. All the hotels and restaurantekeepers are feeding a certain number of children every day.

St. Wilfred Blunt Arrested.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—At Woodford, County Galway, Sunday, a Home Rule meeting was to be held under the auspices of the British Home Rule union, to protest against coercion. The government proclaimed the meeting and sent a large body of troops and police to the town. There was a great crowd of people from the surrounding country. The platform was in a large field. Wilfred Blunt, the philanthropist, formerly Conservative, was to preside, assisted by James Rowlands, M. P., and other British members of parliament. When the speakers mounted the platform, Judge Byrne, the divisional magistrate, forbade Mr. Blunt to hold the meeting. Thereupon Mr. Blunt defied the police, who were at once ordered to clear the platform. Several policemen seized the bold speaker, who violently resisted being thrown from the platform. Twice he cried out loudly:

"Are you such d—d cowards that you do not dare to arrest me?"

The district inspector replied, "I arrest you."

Mr. Blunt was then marched off under a heavy escort of police, with his wife following. The people pressing upon the officers and blocking the way, the latter were ordered to charge upon them, which they did, injuring many. Mr. Rowlands, who was left with his conference on the stand, called for three cheers for Blunt, which was heartily given. Mr. Blunt was taken before two magistrates and committed to refrain from holding any meeting, but the English member refused to comply with their demands and was retained in custody. In the evening Mr. Blunt and another prisoner were conveyed to Loughrea jail.

A feeling of intense gratification prevails among the Nationalists. Mr. Harrington last night expressed himself that he did not believe Mr. Blunt would be detained or prosecuted. "But," he added, "it will do good and I should not wonder if we hear more of it."

Mr. William O'Brien was paying a visit to Mr. Dillon when the news of Mr. Blunt's arrest arrived. Both gentlemen expressed great concern for the personal inconvenience to which Mr. Blunt would be subjected, but could not conceal their gratification at the turn events had taken. The interest was intensified when it became known that the telegraph wires between Portlanna and Woodford had been cut and the service suspended for several hours. The greatest activity prevailed at Dublin Castle, communications being constantly sent and received.

Sir Wilfred Blunt's letter to Magistrate Byrne guaranteed moderate language on the part of the speaker. He warned the magistrate that he would hold him responsible if he attacked an unarmed, orderly meeting.

Over thirty persons were more or less so-riously injured at Woodford. The feeling against the police runs very high. It is stated that in many instances they had recourse to unnecessary brutality.

A Mob in Westminster Abbey.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Several tens of the unemployed, with a red flag at their head, marched in procession yesterday afternoon from Trafalgar square to Westminster Abbey, and, although no invitation had been extended, 1,200 of the crowd were admitted. The flag was left in charge of the vergers. Inside the abbey many of the unexpected visitors remained covered, and indulged in whistling, while others mounted the pedestals of the various statues or mingled with the decent people present, who mostly left the building. The crowd, as a rule, chewed tobacco, and expectorated everywhere, regardless of the surroundings, until the first siren was announced, when the reader was loudly jeered, completely drowning his voice. The second siren was similarly received.

Canon Pinnow preached a sermon, which was interrupted repeatedly by loud questions and exultations.
At the close of his remarks the mob hissed and marched out of the abbey, cordially cheered by their comrades in waiting outside. The whole then proceeded, shouting and hooting, to Trafalgar square, where the leaders denounced the church and police.

Several arrests were made of brawling persons and thieves.

Let the Punishment Fit the Crime.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The testimony developed at the inquest into the great loss of life attending the burning of the opera comique and the nature of the indictment against M.
Carvalho, the manager, and other officials, have just been published, through journalistic indiscretion. The evidence taken indicates almost incredible carelessness and want of system in the management of the theater. M. Carvalho gives a version of the cause of the disaster which he claims will exculpate him from all blame. He promises to prove the accuracy of his statements when the case comes up for trial.

"BLINKY" MORGAN'S TRIAL.

An Index of Criminals, Who Are Suspected of Planning a Rescue.

RAVENNA, O., Oct. 25.—The now all-absorbing topic of conversation in official circles, in the household, in the shop, and on the street corners is "Blinky" Morgan, the renowned murderer, highwayman, robber, thief and general desperado. Ever since the arrival on Thursday of the two scores of witnesses who will testify in his behalf by attempting to prove an alibi, the officials in charge of "Blinky" have been more cautious.

His adeptness at breaking jail is well known. The first precaution taken was the handcuffing of him right at his seat in the court room, before leaving court, instead of going to an ante-room, as has been the custom. But the question has arisen, would these precautions already taken be of any benefit in event of an attempted rescue?
Many men are here presumably out of curiosity to see "Blinky" and hear the trial, but it is a fact and commonly known that some of "Blinky's" best friends and brothers in crime are on hand.

Mrs. Nell Lowrie, the relative of Morgan by marriage, and sister of Coughlin, now in jail waiting to be tried for complicity in the same murder for which "Blinky" is being tried, has been entirely too familiar with "Blinky" since her arrival. Her falling on "Blinky's" neck and kissing him passionately has been much talked about, and it is understood that Sheriff Sheldon will hereafter allow no familiarity whatever and keep all at a safe distance.

"Blinky" reads the daily newspapers regularly. One of the guards referred to an article in one of them in which it said that hemp was starting him in the face. "Never will a rope be stretched around my neck," he answered.

Word comes from Akron that a number of well known crooks have been passing through there on the train daily for some time past, and the conductors say that they almost invariably hold tickets for Ravenna.
Besides the number of deputies already on hand, it has been suggested that what Ravenna now wants is 100 extra policemen in and about the jail and court house, for so sure as the jury brings in a verdict of guilty, and from the evidence, that is now almost a certainty, there will be trouble.
It is understood that the city of Cleveland, if asked, would furnish fifty of the extra men.

THE CROW DIFFULTY.

Military Preparations Made to Prevent an Outbreak—Battle Expected.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 25.—Adj. Gen.
Vincent, of the Department of Dakota, when asked about the military preparations for meeting the expected trouble at the Crow Agency, Montana, said:

"Some forty of the turbulent young Crows have been at the Tongue River Agency with the view of inducing the Cheyennes there to join them, but the latter have refused to do so. A troop of cavalry and a company of infantry left Fort Keogh at noon Saturday for the Tongue River Agency with the view of insuring quiet. Three companies of infantry are held in readiness at Fort Keogh for immediate service whenever circumstances may demand. Three troops of cavalry and two companies of infantry have been ordered from Fort Meade to Fullocks Fork, between the Tongue River Agency and the Crow Agency, for service in case of any extended outbreak by the Crows and to prevent them should they be disposed to do so, from breaking away in a southeasterly direction.
At Fort Custer, within eight miles of the Crow Agency, there are five troops of cavalry and two companies of infantry; also one company of infantry immediately at the agency. Gen. Ruger reached Fort Custer at noon Sunday."

A dispatch from Billings, Mont., says the authorities declare that the matter will be settled the first of the week and a fight today or to-morrow seems highly probable.

McGarigle to Go to Winnipeg.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to the World from Hamilton, Ont., says that Mc-Garigle, the Chicago booby, has been there for some time, but his identity being discovered, he is on the point of leaving for Winnipeg with Capt. Irving, of the schooner on which McGarigle escaped and who is his constant companion. McGarigle's whereabouts for the last two months has been unknown.

Caught on Bohemian Out.

MILLERSBURG, O., Oct. 25.—Holmes county, it appears, has not escaped the Bohemian outswindlers, as a note for $115 on John Cook, a Ripley township farmer, has been sent here for collection. They agree, however, to take $50 and settle it. Cook says he gave the note, but they were to take his crop at $10 per bushel.

Nad Accident.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Miss Agnes Pullen, living a few miles above here, met with a fatal accident. While standing near the fireplace at her residence her clothes suddenly caught fire, and before she could be extinguished her body was so badly burned that her death is momentarily expected.

Fireman Killed.

MADISON, Ind., Oct. 25.—Early Sunday morning, while on route to a fire, James King, who was driving the hose reel, was thrown under the wheels and instantly killed, his skull being crushed.

AMER GREEN'S LYNCHERS.

NO POSSIBILITY OF CONVICTING ANY OF THEM.

The Coroner Investigating the Affair, but It is Believed That He is Working On a Hopeless Case—Governor Gray in a Letter Censure the Sheriff and Judge.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 25.—There is still considerable excitement over the lynching of Amer Green, on Friday night, and more in the eastern part of the county about Burlington and Young America. The coroner held a short sitting on Saturday at Flora and adjourned until this week, when he will take up the investigation. He is proposing to subpoena a large number of witnesses with a view to identify members of the mob. The Delphi Journal, in an extra issued Saturday morning, stated that Mr.
Mabbitt, father of the missing girl, talked with Amer as the mob was preparing to hang him. Mr. Mabbitt denied before the coroner that he was present, and now the Journal editors will be summoned to tell what they know. His was the only name mentioned as that of a member of the mob.

A letter published in the Indianapolis Journal, addressed by Governor Gray to Sheriff Van Gundy, has called forth considerable comment and awakened indignation toward the governor. He censures the sheriff and the judge for gross negligence of duty and lack of precaution, but his letter is based on an assumption of facts that did not exist. Even those who most directly deprecate the action of the mob have not a word of censure for the sheriff.

There was absolutely nothing in the situation prior to Friday night to excite suspicion, and the attack was a surprise to even the best informed.

Green's attorney, on the day previous to the attack, told the sheriff they had no fear of a mob.

It is also believed that Green's attorneys, Dykman & McConnell, of Logansport, will press an investigation. They have already received a large fee from their client. The grand jury will be called for a special session on Wednesday. Owing to the desperate record of Green, there is no possibility of convicting a member of the mob that hung him, even if he were identified. The story told by Green on the scaffold, to the effect that Luella Mabbitt was still alive and under the care of Samuel Payne, at Fort Worth, Tex., is considered only a ruse to stay his execution until he could be reclaimed by the officers of the law. Inquiry at Fort Worth has failed to discover either the girl or Payne. Green's attorneys now say that they questioned him just before he was brought from the Michigan City prison, and he refused to tell even them of the whereabouts of Luella Mabbitt, saying that he had no confidence in any man to tell where Luella Mabbitt was.

Green's entire life was one of infamy.
Scarcely a family within a radius of five miles of his former home but had some personal grievance against him. He would cheat, lie and steal, and was familiar with the entire calendar of crime. He was feared by every man in his neighborhood, and on numerous occasions when arrested for some predation he forced men through fear to perjure themselves to acquit him. No man in his neighborhood ever testified against him. He would call people up at all hours of the night to make some tyrannical demand of them, such as to go into the cellar and get him a glass of milk or equally ridiculous thing, but no one ever dared to complain. He robbed every man in the neighborhood, but to prosecute him or testify against him meant to be flogged or have a barn burned or a horse poisoned. He was a member of what was once known as the Jap Choen gang, which was broken up a few years ago when Choen was sent to the penitentiary.

Excitement Over a Murder.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 25.—Advises from Tahlequah, Indian Territory, report great excitement there over the murder of Editor Stone, of the Telephone newspaper, who was shot Saturday by E. C. Boudinot, of the Advocate. Stone represented the Reform party, who oppose further concessions of land to the cattle syndicate. His paper contained very bitter attacks upon the Nationalists, or party in power, who are accused of ballot box stuffing to retain their offices. The Advocate is the organ of the latter party. Boudinot is guarded by armed friends, and the friends of Stone are also arming themselves. It is feared that the tragedy is the beginning of a civil war that has long been predicted in the Cherokee Nation.

Two Vessels Go Down in Lake Erie.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 25.—An unknown schooner is ashore off Noble station, twelve miles east of Cleveland, with six men lashed to the rigging. There is a heavy sea, and it is feared the vessel will go to pieces before the life-savers can reach her. A special from Ashtabula harbor says that the schooner James F. Joy, of Detroit, foundered in twenty feet of water, just outside the pier, at that place, this morning. The sea is running very high, and the vessel is fast going to pieces. The crew have all reached the shore in safety.

Another Land Schooner Indicted.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—F. R. Morse has been indicted by the United States grand jury for misuse of the mails in connection with the St. Andrew's Bay (Florida) land scheme. He pleaded not guilty before Judge Sage this morning and gave $1,000 bond. Samuel M. Ferris and James A. De Armond became his sureties. It is for an offense similar to those for which L. A.
Leonard and Guy Weber have been indicted.

Anarchists' girls.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Attorney General Hunt, of Illinois, will be ready to submit to the United States supreme court printed briefs in the Anarchists' case Thursday, and indicates that he may desire to make an oral argument also.

Fire in a Cargo of Cotton.

BANANAN, Ga., Oct. 25.—Fire in the bottom cargo of the steamer Sylvia, loading for Reval last night, caused about $30,000 damage. The origin of the fire is unknown.
